

ALREADY ON THE WAY

Chukuma Dj. Akaeme

Port Harcourt

GOWON was reported as having exhorted his fellow Nigerians to help resolve the present crisis. One would like to ask the "dictator" by how?

When he unleashed his mad war of aggression on us least did he expect that his war of aggression like all wars of aggression would turn against him.

In fact, Gowon was warned on the futility of waging war against Biafra, but like "small Hitler" he ignored these wise counsels. Who is going to rescue him? Certainly no one but himself. Gowon, calling off this war, would save his country the present hardship engulfing them.

Nigerians, cannot be fooled any more, by believing that Gowon's rabble army are capturing places in Biafra. Gowon still claims that his troops are consolidating their hold in Bonny.

A major general who has never visited any of the war fronts. The sooner Gowon rescues himself, the better for him, or should he wait until his very village is threatened?

We are already on the way.
