

WORTHY

ONE could not help reading with some delight the article captioned: "WHY BIAFRA FIGHTS ON", published in the Daily Flash" of December 28, 1967.

That the 'dead world' is resurrecting is something worthy of note. That the 'deadened world conscience' is awakening is nothing new. And that humanity apparently dumb and void of reason over our affairs is speaking up surprises nobody, especially when we realise that truth, like light, cannot be suppressed or hidden indefinitely. For one may deceive some of the people some of the time, but not all the people all the time.

We all, therefore, have to double our efforts in our bid to win this war of survival, particularly now that it has begun to dawn on to the wicked and cursed
