

WORTHY SUGGESTIONS BY ILOZUE

J. B. Nzeh

Port Harcourt

I read Mr. Udenba Ilozue's article, captioned 'Complete Break With Nigeria,' which appeared on Page three of the Daily Flash of Friday, 5th Jan. 1968, with rapt interest. I therefore write this in order to lend more weight and support to his suggestions, which are worthy of emulation.

I spent twenty-two clear years of my precious life in Lagos (Nigeria), and contributed in my small ways, as a human being, some ideas and ideals, which referred to as dogmas in Trade Unio-

But now, I hate even hearing the mention of the name "Lagos" (Nigeria), more so each time I recall the disgraceful way we were treated in a society where we regarded ourselves as a complimentary arm.

Any idea, ideal, proposal, scheme (call it what you like) that can make us forget completely our former link with Nigeria is therefore worthy of experiment. Hence I support Mr. Ilozue's suggestions, and also pray the custodians of our destiny to digest same.
