

DIM THOSE HEAD LIGHTS

Sunday O. Nwanju

Port Harcourt

PORT Harcourt citizens have always been law abiding people. But it is a regret to note that some vehicle owners still ply about their vehicles with their headlights on at nights.

May I appeal to the authorities concerned to intensify their road checks at nights, and among other things, to see that people put out their lights or to prevent the reflection at night, Danger comes like a thief.