

PLACE RED LIGHTS AT CHECKPOINTS

M. A. Ajih

Port Harcourt

LAST Thursday night we nearly ran into the barrier placed—across the road by Aba Civil Defenders at one of the check points. If this had happened, we would not only have lost our lives but the lives of the Defenders themselves.

Such an accident can easily be avoided by placing red lights at the check-points. Ordinary hurricane lamps with their globes painted red will suffice.