

SABOTEURS TAKE NOTE

Miss Ifeoma Uchendu

ENUGU

THE saboteurs in our midst ought to know why we are fighting. We are fighting a war of survival and war of independence. It wasn't our intention to fight but since the Lagos junta and their collaborators launched this war of aggression on us, we must all rise as one body and face the challenge.

Now that our good government is planning a nation where no man shall be oppressed, the saboteurs took it upon themselves—because of love of money—to sabotage our government.

Biafra would have won this war long ago were it not of Alibaba Awolowo and dictator Yakubu Gowon who wanted to rig this war through the judases among us. Their evil plans to exterminate the people of this young Republic have been failing and LIES in our country, so think twice! Please let there be a change of heart among all those who want to get rich overnight through treachery.

We are all Biafrans and must fight our enemies with the same spirit. This war is not assigned to a particular person or to one ethnic group. We are all sisters and brothers in Biafra irrespective of tribe, religion or creed.

We must therefore fight the Nigerian vandals as one body
